TCU NOTABLES

- Heading into the 2024 season, TCU was picked to finish fourth in the Big 12 Conference, receiving one first place vote. The Horned Frogs also earned 97 votes in the AVCA/TARAFLEX Preseason Coaches' Poll.
- Senior Melanie Parra was tabbed the Big 12 Preseason Player of the Year as voted on by the conference's head coaches. She is the first Horned Frog to earn this honor.
- Parra was also a unanimous Preseason All-Big 12 selection, joining teammate Jalyn Gibson, who was named to the preseason team.
- Head coach Jason Williams looks to take TCU to the NCAA Tournament for the third consecutive season in 2024. In just two seasons with the program, he has guided the Frogs to back-to-back Second Round appearances in the Big Dance.
- The Horned Frogs open 2024 with one of the toughest schedules in the nation. Three of TCU's first four matches are against ranked teams: No. 2 Nebraska, No. 3 Wisconsin and No. 18 Minnesota.
- TCU returns five starters and eight letterwinners from a season ago, including its stat leader in aces (Melanie Parra, 47), assists (Lily Nicholson, 620), blocks (Sarah Sylvester, 138), digs (Cecily Bramschreiber, 464) and kills (Parra, 482).

NUMBERS TO KNOW

Melanie Parra's 34 kills against Florida State last season broke the four-set school record for total kills in a single match and was one shy of tying the all-time Big 12 record. Parra was honored for her performance with AVCA National Player of the Week and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week Honors (9/19).

11

Jason Williams is just one of 11 other head coaches to advance past the first round of the NCAA Tournament in each of their first two seasons at the helm joining the likes of John Cook (Nebraska), Jerritt Elliot (Texas), Kevin Hambly (Stanford), Kelly Sheffield (Wisconsin) and Mary Wise (Florida), among others.

TCU's 2024 roster features eight newcomers. Head Coach Jason Williams welcomes four talented freshmen, who rank ninth nationally as a signing class according to PrepVolleyball, and four experienced transfers, including 2023 FIVB U19 World Championship Gold Medalist Becca Kelley, to Fort Worth.

JUST TCU, PLEASE

Though the TCU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized simply as TCU (acronym only) Athletics. Ditto regarding references to its sports teams: TCU volleyball, TCU basketball, TCU football, etc.

In all sports-related media references, we respectfully request that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation-TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation the team may be referred to by nickname - Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

SCOUTING REPORT

OKLAHOMA

Head coach Aaron Mansfield (104-85, seven seasons) leads Oklahoma volleyball into a new era as it joins the SEC in 2024. Mansfield enters his second season at the helm after leading the Sooners to an 11-17 record a year ago.

Moving into a new conference, OU returns nine players from its 2023 squad; however, the Sooners are looking to replace their top two offensive weapons. Over the summer, middle blocker Lydia Martyn was selected to the USAV Women's Collegiate National Team. Last season for Oklahoma, Martyn led the team in blocks and ranked third with 243 kills.

TCU faces a familiar foe in its season opener against Oklahoma. The former Big 12 Conference member holds the all-time series lead over the Frogs; however, TCU has won five of the last six meetings, including each of the previous three.

NEBRASKA

Already off to a 1-0 start after taking down No. 9 Kentucky on Tuesday, John Cook (690-100) heads into his 25th season as head coach at Nebraska. A season ago, Nebraska posted a 33-2 record overall, winning the Big Ten Conference title and advancing to the NCAA Final against Texas where the Huskers finished as the National Runner-Up. Picked to win the conference again in 2024 by the league's head coaches, Nebraska opens the season with the No. 2 ranking in the AVCA/TARAFLEX Coaches' Poll behind defending national champion Texas.

The Huskers return all six starters and their libero from a season ago, four of whom were AVCA All-Americans. Nebraska also welcomes two top-20 recruits from the high school ranks and two impact transfers to their roster. Additionally, five student-athletes were named to the Preseason All-Big Ten team.

The Horned Frogs and Huskers have only met once on the court in the two programs' history. Nebraska won the lone meeting back in 2016, which came in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

TCU TIDBITS

- » Jason Williams became the first TCU volleyball head coach to lead his program to the postseason in each of his first two years at the helm.
- » In the last two years, TCU is one of 24 programs nationally to win an NCAA Tournament match in back-to-back seasons.
- » Nine of TCU's 2024 opponents were NCAA Tournament Teams a year ago, including Nebraska, which finished as the National Runner-Up.
- » The Horned Frogs are 15-13 in season openers.
- » In 2023, TCU recorded the most...
 - › Aces since 2009 (167)
 - › Assists since 2011 (1,496)
 - › Blocks since 2007 (320)
 - › Digs since 2011 (1,881)
 - › Kills since 2011 (1,620)
 - › Points since 2009 (2,107)
- » Last season, Melanie Parra became the sixth AVCA All-American in program history and first since 2016. Additionally, she is the first TCU player to be named to one of the three AVCA All-American teams as the previous five Horned Frogs garnered All-American Honorable Mention honors.
- » Parra became just the 11th player in program history to tally 400 kills in a single season in 2023, finishing with 482 kills, the fourth most in school history and most since 2004.
- » Parra recorded the most points by Horned Frog in a single season (569.0), topping the previous record set by Ellen Rehme (551.0 in 2004).
- » Parra also logged a pair of 34-kill matches against Florida State (9/15/23) and Texas Tech (9/29/23). Both matches tied for the second most kills in a match in program history, and her 34 against FSU are the most by a Horned Frog in four sets.
- » Cecily Bramschrieger racked up 464 digs in 2023, the eighth most in a single season in school history.
- » Bramschrieger has tallied 10+ digs in 19 of her last 20 matches dating back to last season, including seven with at least 20 in that span.
- » Sarah Sylvester recorded 138.0 total blocks last season, the sixth most in TCU history.
- » Sylvester's 13 blocks against Utah State in three sets also shattered the program record for blocks in a three-set match and rank second in the record books.

UPCOMING MILESTONES

- » Jalyn Gibson is four kills away from 500 in her career.
- » Jason Williams is 16 wins shy of 50 in his coaching career.
- » Sarah Sylvester is 17 blocks away from 200 in her career.
- » Melanie Parra is 24 aces shy of 150 in her career.

PRESEASON PRAISE

- » Ahead of the 2024 season, the Big 12 Conference released its preseason poll and awards, headlined by TCU volleyball's Melanie Parra, who was named the Big 12 Preseason Player of the Year as voted on by the league's head coaches.
- » Parra's 4.38 kills per set (17th nationally) and 5.17 points per set (12th nationally) from a season ago are the highest marks among returning league players.
- » She is the first Horned Frog to secure Big 12 Preseason Player of the Year honors and was also a unanimous selection to the Preseason All-Big 12 team, joining teammate Jalyn Gibson as one of the 18 student-athletes from 11 schools.

SHE'S BAAAAACK

- » Melanie Parra took the nation by storm a year ago after capping off her historic 2023 season with unanimous First Team All-Big 12 honors and an American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Third Team All-American nod.
- » In 29 matches played in a Horned Frog uniform, the Sinaloa, Mexico, native tallied 13 double-doubles and 23 matches with 10+ kills, including eight with 20+.
- » She also helped lead TCU to its second straight NCAA Tournament Second Round appearance while setting a new single-season school record with 569 points in 2023.

A LIBERO'S JOURNEY

- » For Cecily Bramschrieger, it has been a long and winding journey to become TCU's starting libero.
- » Recruited as an outside hitter, Bramschrieger was a 2020 First Team Under Armour All-American.

» The Lucas, Texas, native made the position change her freshman season, earning 11 starts at libero and four more as a defensive specialist where she tallied 212 digs, 53 assists and 11 aces.

» The following year, Bramschreiber moved back to the outside and averaged 3.06 kills per set before a foot injury sidelined her for the season five matches in.

» In 2023, she put the libero jersey back on and never looked back.

» Branschrieber started all 32 matches at libero, posting double-digit digs in all but four contests, including a career-best 28 digs against West Virginia.

» She ranked fifth in Big 12 play with 3.82 digs per set and played a large role in TCU tallying its most digs in a single season since 2011.

A DUAL-SPORT STAR IS BORN

In January of 2024, Sarah Sylvester was given a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to play Division I basketball. Riddled with injuries, TCU women's basketball shared a flyer advertising open tryouts following the cancellation of two games. A total of 40 students participated over the course of the two-day tryout.

TCU quickly determined Sylvester had a spot on the squad provided the Horned Frog volleyball program gave its blessing. Women's basketball head coach Mark Campbell talked with volleyball head coach Jason Williams, whose program endured a forfeit of its own in 2022. Williams had no hesitation in helping women's basketball in a time of need. He was also keenly aware of Sylvester's original love for basketball. She fielded a handful of offers from mid-major Division I programs as a high school underclassman before committing to volleyball.

Sylvester's addition to the roster was publicized on Sunday, Jan. 21, less than 48 hours from TCU's return to the court vs. UCF. She began practicing with the team later that day.

Sylvester made her debut on the hardwood against UCF, playing the final minute of the third quarter, helping TCU transform a 48-47 deficit into a 51-50 edge entering the final frame. Her legacy only continued to grow when she became the first student-athlete in TCU history to record points for both volleyball and basketball, scoring on a free throw at Oklahoma on Feb. 7.

NO SOPHOMORE SLUMP

» Jalyn Gibson took the leap in 2023 as a sophomore, becoming one of the top outsides in the Big 12 Conference.

» Gibson garnered Second Team honors from the conference after a breakout season a year ago.

» The San Antonio, Texas, product turned heads as an underclassman, ranking ninth and 15th in the conference in total points (430.0) and kills per set (3.24), respectively.

» She also hit a team-leading .259 and finished second on the Horned Frogs with 11 total double-doubles.

» Gibson landed a spot on the 2024 Big 12 Preseason Team and looks to take the next step as a junior.

COMING HOME

» The Horned Frogs bolstered their roster this offseason through the transfer portal, bringing in four new faces to the program and back to their home state of Texas.

» Becca Kelley arrived early on campus in the spring after redshirting her freshman year at Oregon. A talented high school player in the DFW area, Kelley was a 2022 AVCA First Team HS All-American and JVA All-American. She also competed at the international level, winning a gold medal at the 2023 FIVB U19 World Championships with USA Volleyball.

» Familiar with the Big 12, Melanie McGann joins the Frogs after two seasons at West Virginia where she appeared in 42 matches with the Mountaineers, including 21 starts in 2022 as a freshman. In two years at WVU, McGann racked up 173 kills, averaging 1.37 per set, and totaled 106 blocks.

» Alexis Roberson appeared in 50 sets over 14 matches last season at LSU before transferring to TCU. The 6-3 middle blocker averaged 0.80 blocks per set and tallied 40 blocks and 67 kills for the Tigers in 2023.

» Stephanie Young elected to spend her final season of eligibility with the Frogs. She has over 1,000 assists, 434 digs, 95 kills and 32 blocks under her belt in her four-year career at FAU. Young also spent a season at Texas A&M Corpus Christi where she helped lead the Islanders to both SLC Regular Season and Tournament Champions and a third straight NCAA Tournament in beach volleyball.

ROOKIES IN THE RANKINGS

» TCU welcomes a talented freshman class that was ranked No. 9 nationally by PrepVolleyball.com and No. 14 by Prep Dig to campus for the 2024 season.

» Out of Scottsdale, Evan Hendrix was rated the StadiumTalk and MaxPreps No. 1 volleyball player in Arizona. A four-year varsity starter at Notre Dame Prep, she amassed 1,898 kills over 373 sets played at a whopping .319 clip while tallying 1,036 digs and 127 blocks. The 5-9 outside hitter was a three-time all-conference honoree, Second Team MaxPreps Volleyball All-American after her junior year and MaxPreps Preseason All-American as a senior.

» Hailing from Manhattan Beach, Calif., Bryn Shankle was instrumental for Mira Costa High School, helping guide the Mustangs to two California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) Southern Section runner-up appearances. The 6-4 middle blocker totaled 212 kills and 162 blocks in her high school career while adding 2023 All-Bay League honors to her name.

» The No. 83 ranked player in the nation by Prep Dig, Alice Volpe finished her high school career as Bridgeland High School's all-time dig leader (2,296 digs). She collected AVCA First Team All-American honors as a senior, averaging 5.6 digs per set over 135 sets played, and was back-to-back 16-6A Defensive Player of the Year.

» Ranked No. 48 in the country by Prep Dig, Mikala Young rounds out the Fantastic (Twenty) Fours. Young was a four-time Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools (TAPPS) First Team All-District selection at Prestonwood Christian High School. Young guided her team to back-to-back-to-back TAPPS State Championships in 2022, 2023 and 2024.

TCU TURNAROUND

» Named the fourth head coach in TCU Volleyball history on Dec. 20, 2021, Jason Williams has shifted the trajectory of the program.

» In just his first season, he led TCU to its best-ever Big 12 finish (11-5) and more importantly, guided the Frogs to their first NCAA Tournament appearance and win since 2016.

» Last year, Williams once again took TCU to the Big Dance, upsetting No. 21 Florida State in the first round.

» During his tenure at TCU, he has coached five All-Big 12 honorees, three All-Region athletes and one AVCA All-American.

DEEP IN THE HEART OF TEXAS

» The Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex and state of Texas at large is arguably the most fertile volleyball recruiting ground in the country, and head coach Jason Williams has made retaining the region's top prep prospects a priority since day one.

» Of the 17 Horned Frogs on the 2024 roster, 11 (65 percent) call the Lone Star State home, and seven hail from the DFW area.

STARS AND STRIPES

» Two TCU volleyball stars spent their offseason training with some of the best collegiate and professional volleyball players in the country at the USA Volleyball WNT Open Program.

» Sophomore outside hitter Jalyn Gibson was joined by transfer Becca Kelley and more than 200 other women's volleyball players in Colorado Springs, where they had the opportunity to attend the three-day tryout for a shot to represent the United States in international play and hear from 2020 Olympic Gold Medalist and MVP Jordan Larson.

» Head Coach Jason Williams is also familiar with the USA Volleyball pipeline.

» This summer, Williams joined the staff for the National Team Development Program Summer Training Series in late July and early August, working with some of the top junior volleyball athletes in the country.

BEST IN THE BUSINESS

» Jason Williams and TCU announced several staff promotions for the 2024 volleyball season, promoting Kyle Luongo and Morgan Thomas to Associate Head Coach.

» Luongo and Thomas have both been crucial in the success of TCU volleyball over the past two years, helping the Horned Frogs advance to back-to-back NCAA Round of 32 appearances and earn the most ranked wins in a single season with three in 2023.

» With both Luongo and Thomas on staff the past two seasons, TCU produced its first-ever AVCA Third-Team All-American, three AVCA All-Southwest Region honors and five All-Big 12 selections, in addition to 34 wins.

2024 BIG 12 PRESEASON POLL

» TCU volleyball stock is high heading into 2024 as head coach Jason Williams' Horned Frogs were picked fourth (146) in the preseason poll, receiving one first place vote. Only Kansas (173), BYU (168) and Arizona State (158) were picked ahead of TCU.

» It is tied for the program's second-highest preseason prediction as the 2023 squad was also tabbed fourth a year ago and third in 2019.

LARGEST VOLLEYBALL MATCH IN TEXAS

A record-breaking 7,412 fans packed Schollmaier Arena to watch TCU and No. 6 Texas battle in a five-set thriller last October. Not only was it a new attendance record for TCU volleyball, but it was also the new attendance record for all women's athletics events at TCU and the largest for a regular-season volleyball match in the state of Texas.

JASON WILLIAMS

Jason Williams was named the fourth head coach in TCU Volleyball history on Dec. 20, 2021, and enters his third season at the helm of the program in 2024.

Over the course of Williams' collegiate coaching career, he has helped produce 14 AVCA All-Americans, 22 All-Region honorees and 35 All-Conference nods, in addition to the 2019 Big 12 Championship. A program builder, Williams is just one of 11 other active head coaches to advance past the first round of the NCAA Tournament in each of their first two seasons at the helm.

One of Williams' most significant accomplishments since arriving at TCU has been reinvigorating a passion for the sport across campus. In each of his first two seasons, the Horned Frogs broke the program record for single-game attendance average in a season with 1,642 fans in 2022 and 2,247 fans in 2023 packing Schollmaier Arena each match. Williams and the Horned Frogs also celebrated a new attendance record with a crowd of 7,412 in attendance to see TCU face off against No. 6 Texas on Oct. 18, 2023.

Williams' second year saw the Horned Frogs make the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season – the second time in school history that TCU has advanced to consecutive NCAA Tournament Round of 32. The Frogs earned their second consecutive NCAA Tournament First Round win, defeating No. 22 Florida State, 3-1, to become one of only 24 schools nationally to earn tournament victories in 2022 and 2023.

TCU's strength of schedule was on full display in 2023 as the Frogs earned three ranked wins, the most in program history, and 13 victories over AVCA Top 100 teams. TCU also swept No. 20 Baylor on the road for the first ranked road wins in school history.

The Horned Frogs saw tremendous success on the court, recording the most assists (1,496), digs (1,881) and kills (1,620) since 2011, aces (167) and points (2,107) since 2009 and blocks (320) since 2007. Three student-athletes received All-Big 12 honors in Melanie Parra, Jalyn Gibson and Audrey Nalls. Gibson also garnered AVCA

All-Southwest Region First Team accolades while Parra earned AVCA Third Team All-American honors – the first player in TCU history to be named to one of the three All-American teams.

Williams was nothing short of an instant success in his inaugural head coaching season in 2022. After being tabbed to finish seventh in the Big 12 preseason poll, TCU finished third outright in the conference standings behind a 17-11 overall record and program-record 11 wins in Big 12 play. The Horned Frogs then earned their fourth-ever NCAA Tournament Berth and first in six years, advancing to the Round of 32 following a 3-1 opening-round win over national power Washington.

Under Williams' leadership, TCU produced the biggest turnaround season of any Power Five conference volleyball program in 2022. The Horned Frogs were the only program to more than double their overall win total and more than quintuple their conference victories from 2021.

Individually, Williams coached Audrey Nalls and his daughter, Callie Williams, to All-Big 12 first team recognition. He also saw Nalls named to the AVCA All-Southwest Region Team.

Prior to TCU, Williams was instrumental in helping Baylor, posting six consecutive 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament appearances. In 2019, Baylor earned a No. 1 national ranking, won the program's first Big 12 championship with a 15-1 conference record, was the NCAA Tournament's No. 1 overall seed and reached the Final Four. During his tenure in Waco, Williams coached six players to All-America honors, including 2019 AVCA National Player of the Year and five-time All-American Yossiana Pressley. In 2021, the Bears climbed as high as No. 6 in the national rankings and made their third consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 following a 22-6 season.

Before arriving at Baylor, Williams was a highly successful coach at the junior club level in Texas.
